ELY, September 24. 1756.

☞ JAMES BENTHAM, M.A. having for ſeveral years been collecting Materials for A HISTORY OF THE CONVENTUAL AND CATHEDRAL CHURCH OF ELY, now publiſhes the following Catalogue of its Principal Members; with requeſt, that all thoſe who are poſſeſſed of Memoirs relating to the Families, Characters, Writings, &c. of the Perſons therein mentioned, would favour him with the communication, (before ~~Lady Day~~ Michaelmas 1757.) in order to render the Biographical Part of the intended Hiſtory more compleat.

He begs leave to repreſent, that about 40 Copper-plates will be requiſite to illuſtrate his Account of the Fabrick of the Church, and the Monuments therein contained. The greater part of the Drawings are already prepared; and he humbly hopes, (from the encouragement he has already met with,) that the expence of Engraving will be defrayed by publick-ſpirited Lovers of Antiquity, whoſe generoſity will be gratefully acknowleged by an inſcription of each Plate to the Perſon who ſhall be at the charge of it.

And as the Regiſters of ſeveral Biſhops of Ely are now, and have been many years miſſing from the Biſhop's Regiſtry, the Editor will be obliged for any information concerning ſuch of them as are to be found either in Publick Libraries, or in private Collections of MSS.

Of the Regiſters of the Biſhops of Ely, none are in the Biſhop's Regiſtry before Biſhop Montacute's, beginning A.D. 1336. — neither are the following now to be found there:
